IMPRESSIVE REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE HELD HERE

Despite cool blustery weather hundreds of citizens turned out for the Remembrance Day Services held in Coleman.

The Parade under the direction of parade marshal Fred Hirst formed in front of the Legion club rooms and paraded up the main street first stopping at the United Church where some of the parade fell out for services at the church. The parade then proceeded to the Anglican church and the Catholic church where members of the various denominations fell out to attend church services.

The Parade then re-assembled and headed by the R. C. M.P., the Crows Nest Pass Band, the Legion Color Party, the R.C.E.M.E. Firing party, the B.E.S.L., the Ladies Auxiliary, the Boy Scouts and Cubs and other organizations proceeded down the main street to the cenotaph where an impressive service was held. Under the chairmanship of Mayor Frank Abousaffy the service began with O' Canada by the C. N. P. Band followed by the Opening Prayer given by the Reverend J. Fairburn. A two minute silence was observed after which the roll call of world wars one and two was read. Laying of wreaths by various organizations was then held during which time the band played the hymn "Abide With Me". After the firing party saluted with three shots the Last Post and Reveille were sounded by trumpeters of the band. Benediction was then given by the Reverend Rod MacAulay after which "God Save the Queen" was played by the band.

Lions Hula Hoop Contest Rated Real Success

A whirling mass of hula hoops presented plenty of entertainment for hundreds of spectators on Saturday afternoon as 120 of the 185 entries in the Coleman Lions Club hula hoop contest, competed in the colorful affair, held in the Coleman main school yard.

Despite the cold wet weather, numerous youngsters endured the strenuous affair for over the first hour, after which those still remaining in the events were taken to the school auditorium for the finals.

With hours of continual twirling going by the judges decided that rather than continue the affair on an endurance basis that competitors would be given two hoops to twirl. This hastened the competition to an early close.

All competitors that entered the affair were given a free theatre ticket while those that continued for over an hour were given two tickets. Those that continued in the event with two hoops, were given a third ticket by the Lions Club.

Winners in the three groups were:

Age group from six to eight years: Miss Mary Koury, 8.

Group nine to eleven years old: Jean Taggart, 11.

Group twelve to fourteen years: Miss Linda Field, 12 years old.

Each of the winners was presented with a cheque for five dollars for their ability by Ed Howard of the Lions Club.

The winners of the contest will put on an exhibition of hoop twirling at the Lions Club turkey and Christmas cake bingo scheduled to be held in the Coleman Elks hall Tuesday evening, December 16.

SPRINGHILL DISASTER RELIEF FUND ORGANIZED

Representatives of 30 different organizations met in the Council Chamber at a meeting called by the Coleman Lions Club on behalf of the Town Council on Monday, November 3rd.

It was decided by those present that the Town of Coleman should give concrete help to the families of their fellow miners in Springhill, Nova Scotia.

Various methods of an organized campaign were considered, and it was finally decided that each lodge, club or organization in the town be asked to make a contribution to the "Springhill Disaster Relief Fund". This campaign would in no way affect any individual contributions that the Coleman citizens may wish to make.

Through the courtesy of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, all contributions may be made directly at the bank, and individual official receipts for these payments will be issued from the Eastern headquarters of the fund.

In spite of the very short notice the following organizations were represented:

Former Coleman Minister Preaches Sermon at St. Alban's

Parishioners and guests of St. Luke's and St. Alban's Anglican Churches in Blairmore and Coleman, had the opportunity last week of hearing the Rev. Canon Neale of London, England, preach a sermon at local churches.

Canon Neale, former missionary to the Crow's Nest Pass 32 years ago, is the rector of Long Marston, Rural Dean of Appleby and Kirby, Stephen and Honorary Canon of Carlisle Cathedral on the Scottish Border. The Canon has been making a tour of the Continent and while in Coleman was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham of Coleman.

Following is the text of Canon Neale's sermon in Coleman.

"Eph. 2 Ye are fellow citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God, and are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the Chief Cornerstone.

"Before I start my sermon, I would like to say what a great joy it is to be back among you after an absence of 32 years. I feel that I belong to you as much as I do to England—my first connection with Canada was at a very early age—when I welcomed the first Canadian troops to Witley Camp, Surrey, during the 1914 War. After the War, I came to work on the Archbishop's South Alberta Mission, and had stations at Coulters, Cardston, Warner, Coaldale, and my last two years were at Blairmore and Coleman.

I wish to thank the people, particularly of Coleman, for the many parcels of food and clothing they sent to my parish of Long Marston, Westmorland during the last war. The gifts were a great help to us during this time of great distress, but the fact that we knew the givers, gave us courage and determination.

I have been asked to speak to you of our Church's Ancient Spiritual Heritage.

During the past months, Bishops of the Anglican Communion have been meeting at the home of the Archbishop of Canterbury in London. Canterbury was founded by St. Augustine in the year 597, but the Ancient British Church is much older than this.

On August 8th this year, H.M. Queen Elizabeth was to visit Carlisle Cathedral. When her train arrived in Carlisle Her Majesty had developed a chill and was not able to attend the service. Her Majesty had been to the Isle of Lonsdale which is a long, low island separated from the Northumberland coast by a shallow mile-wide channel. This island is called Holy Island, and is visited by thousands of pilgrims every year. This was an early power house of the Celtic Church, and like Iona, produced many Evangelists and Saints. Saint Columba came from Iona. St. Cuthbert and St. Aidan from Lonsdale. St. Cuthbert worked among the Fells of Westmorland and Cumberland, but St. Aidan was the Apostle of England.

About the year 400 St. Ninian, a Romanized Strathclyde Briton of noble birth evangelized West Scotland, Cumberland and Westmorland, and was followed by St. Columba in 563. St. Patrick was also of this ancient British Church and he became the Bishop of Ireland in 432.

The See of Landaff was founded in the year 500 and that of Bangor 540, also St. Asaph 560, all this before St. Augustine landed in Kent.

There was great rivalry between the Roman Missionary and the Ancient Church and this came to a head at the Council of Whitby (in the north of England), in the year 664. The Church of Iona and Lonsdale had differences about the keeping of Easter Day, and the style of hair cut (the tonsure) also the liturgical practices of the Church Service, but the King sided with the powerful Roman Party and Cumberland and his party retired to their Scottish home and the Roman Party reaped a rich harvest of the hard work done by these early Missionaries.

Subdued for five or more centuries, the Church carried on. The Scottish Episcopal Church is one of the oldest members of the Anglican family, apart from what was done from Iona and Lonsdale. It should not be forgotten that this Church consecrated Samuel Seabury, the first Bishop of the Episcopal Church of America, at Aberdeen in the year 1784.

The first settlers on the Red River, Winnipeg, came from the North Island of the Orkneys in 1820, and belonged to the Episcopal Church.

In 1822 the first school was built and later became what is now St. John's College of the University of Manitoba. Archbishop MacRae, Bishop and Metropolitan of Rupertland, and first Primate of all Canada, and also Archbishop Matheron, came from this old church which was founded at Lonsdale and Iona.

The Bishops of this Ancient Church was present at the Councils of Arles and Arminium, 314 and 381. We owe much to St. Augustine, but he was not of the Ancient British Church. Moreover, King Henry 8th did not start the Church of England, for when Cardinal Pole came back to England as the Pope's Legate during Queen Mary's reign, he did not require that the Bishops and clergy to be re-ordained. If we had been a new church, he would have insisted on re-ordination. He was incidentally, the cousin of Henry the 8th.

Thus we see that the Anglican Church did not come out of Rome, but originated in the British Isles before the Romans came. I think I have shown you something of our very ancient heritage. We are Catholic and Reformed. At the Reformation, we went back to the Early Faith as taught by the Apostles and the Saints of Lonsdale. Jesus Christ being the foundation stone of our beloved Church. Amen.

C.N.P. Cancer Society Reports Successful Year

The annual meeting of the Crow's Nest Pass branch of the Canadian Cancer Society was held in Blairmore main school Wednesday evening, October 29, attended by some 15 members.

First vice-president, John L. Owen of Coleman.

Second vice-president, John Quintillo of Bellevue.

Secretary-treasurer, Lou Huntley of Blairmore.

The Welfare committee will comprise chairman, Mrs. Phyllis Jones of Coleman, Mrs. J. Anderson, Mrs. W. Utley, C. J. Amatto, Mrs. A. Decoux, Mrs. C. Poch, Miss Alaba Fozzi, Mrs. M. Watson, Mrs. P. Cole, Mrs. E. Coates, J. Quintillo, Mrs. D. Jones and Mrs. William Brown.

Included on the Educational committee are chairman, Rev. R. G. Thompson, Mrs. Kay Kerr, Mrs. H. Nedd, Mrs. F. Guerard, Mrs. E. Chabillon, Mrs. F. Mottle, Miss I. S. Seillon, Mrs. H. Newton, Mrs. J. Christie, Mrs. A. Ironmonger, Mrs. W. White, Mrs. G. Martineau, and Mrs. Julia Makin.

Medical advisors are Dr. R. F. Stewart, Dr. F. Russell and Dr. E. Aiello.

During reports of committees, Mrs. Kay Kerr, chairman, stated that President, Mr. McEachern, had taken an active part in this branch especially in the schools.

Mr. McEachern reported on the poster competitions held in the local schools, stating that the posters made should be exhibited in local store windows prior to being sent to provincial headquarters in Calgary.

While presenting prizes to poster winners Mr. McEachern has given talks especially covering the procedure required when applying to the Society for assistance.

He was of the opinion that rural areas are being neglected in this regard.

Rev. Thompson thought that some of the rural patients have consulted advice and received preliminary care in hospitals outside this area and especially in Pincher Creek. It was suggested this matter be investigated.

The financial statement was presented and showed that the sum of $1652.23 had been realized from the recent Cancer Campaign conducted in the Crow's Nest Pass towns recently.

The expenditure section of the statement showed that for local use the sum of $420.50 had been expended for transportation and $41.60 had been used for drugs and medication, which comprised drugs for one case, X-ray costs for one case and transportation costs for 22 cases.

The matter of the provincial convention was then brought up and it was agreed that two members be chosen by the executive to represent the local chapter at the convention to be held in Calgary early in December.

A vote of thanks was extended to all persons in the Pass who contributed so generously to the recent campaign for funds.

THEIR LIVES—HIS LIVELIHOOD DEPEND ON OIL

Imperial contributes to a better life for Canadians through constant leadership in oil... finding new supplies... pioneering more useful products

There are more than five tractors for every six occupied farms in Canada... one motor vehicle for every four Canadians. More than half the homes in Canada are heated by oil.

Canadians consume half again as much gasoline today as they did in 1946, nearly five times as much heating and diesel fuels.

Imperial has been a major contributor to this better life, more productive economy. In 1946, Canada produced less than one-tenth of its oil needs. In 1947, Imperial discovered oil at Leduc, in Alberta. Today, Canada's own fields produce nearly 60 percent of our requirements.

Through its nine refineries from coast to coast... and in its research operations, larger than the rest of the Canadian oil industry put together... Imperial has constantly been able to lead in the development of newer and more useful products... to make a fuller life for Canadians.

FARMERS

One good thing about stubble shooting — you get to talk with a lot of farmers. Over the past few weeks, I've dropped in at several farms to ask permission to hide out in their stubble to shoot ducks. I have never yet been refused; and on at least three occasions, the farmer has joined my son and me for the evening shoot. Usually we talk more than we shoot, and I've learned something about farmers. Farmers are, if I may generalize, a notch ahead of their city cousins as conversationalists. This is particularly true when they are at home on their own fields where they have ready-to-hand illustrations with which to make a point or illustrate an argument.

Arguments these days, I find, are likely to be about contract farming, vertical integration, compulsory marketing schemes, deficiency payments, farm organization, spiralling costs or you name it. I usually name it, and the farmer takes over from there, and that's how I learn something of how farmers think, as individuals.

I asked one farmer, "What's all this talk about vertical integration? Is it good or bad?"

He gave me as straight an answer as I expect I'll ever hear. He said: "My grandfather practiced vertical integration on this farm when he ran it. He grew his feed, fed hogs, butchered them, cured bacon, consumed it... that's vertical integration. He did it because that was the way to do things in those days. Putting a fancy name on something, then saying it's bad if the cannery do it and good if we do it ourselves isn't sense. On some farms I think it is the right way to do things — the way to solve the problem of that farm. On my farm, no. In my judgment I'd better being more flexible. It isn't a question of freedom. It's a question of judgment, and the particular kind of farm or farmer. You can't make good judgments about all farms in one swoop."

Another farmer said to me: — "What farmers need is more bank credit. ... they need to learn how to get it. I get it. I have the banker out here and I show him the farm. I get the wife to give him dinner. I tell him my plans; and I get my credit. Too many farmers troop into town and the story they tell wouldn't get you a nickel from a rich uncle. Financing is a job and farmers have got to learn how to do it. Bankers are human beings, strange as that may seem."

Another said, "I wish people would quit talking about the farmers' problems so much. Solve your own. What's killing us is your problems — strikes, and strike threats, costs jumping. Unemployment insurance, welfare payments — you push so much progress at us we can't adjust. A man can't be prudent any more, the country won't let him, they spend his money for him."

FARMERS' PROBLEMS

I spent the week-end with farm relatives. They have very nice homes, most of the modern conveniences, but they find ready cash hard to come by. Other farmers from the district dropped in and there was a good deal of talk about farm problems.

Earlier in the day I had walked and driven about the countryside a good deal, in search of ducks. I had been impressed by many of the older buildings, built at least a generation ago. So when the problems had all been talked over at length, I asked a question that had been bothering me.

"How," I asked, "did the men and women who lived on these farms — in some cases your fathers or uncles — manage to build such impressive buildings? This house we are in, for example, with so many fine rooms for the family and also that big annex for staff. Was farming so much better then, before they had such good roads, so many fine implements, fertilizers, weed sprayers and the rest? Were they supermen, or is there something wrong with you?"

We were all friends and relatives, so I had hoped to start a lively but friendly little battle. Instead, my cousin said, "Say, I've often wondered about that myself. My forebears must have been darn good farmers. If I had to build this house now, I just couldn't raise that kind of money. And if the wife had to go back to canning, curing, cooking and the rest of it on the old-fashioned range, without running water beside her, I think she'd head for the city!"

His wife laughed. "It's a good question," she admitted. "But I think I know how they did it. To start with they didn't need a great lot of cash money. Everything they bought came cheaper, a lot cheaper. John put a metal roof on that old granary — and that roof alone probably cost several times more than the whole granary cost when his father started farming here. And you should see the bills we pay for gas and oil, and for equipment, for clothing, for everything we buy! And believe me, one way or another we pay for our better roads and better schools and all the rest. It's impossible these days to decide to be thrifty — the government forces you to progress, even if it breaks you!"

Well, that started it. And much to my surprise, the farmers were more critical of themselves than I thought any group could be.

"We've concentrated on getting higher prices for our products — the toughest job. We'd have been better to resist the high prices of things we must buy. We ought to fight to keep taxes down, inflation in check, wages reasonable so that we could sell our products and avoid surpluses. We've got to keep things in balance where an hour's labor on the farm can be traded for an hour's labor in the city. Otherwise, we're sunk. You just can't force high-priced products on foreign buyers."

Design Awards For Homes For Aged

In an endeavor to secure the best possible type of design for the fifty homes for aged persons to be built by the Provincial Government in the rural areas of the province, the Government of Alberta invites residents of the province to submit a sketch plan for such a home.

Cash awards totalling $10,000 will be paid on the basis of:
1st prize, $5,000; 2nd prize, $2,500; 3rd prize, $1,000; 4th prize, $500; and ten prizes of $100 each for features contained in a plan not necessarily selected for one of the first four awards.

Requirements. — The plan required is for a one-storey building costing approximately 200,000 when landscaped, furnished and ready for occupancy. The cost does not include the cost of land.

The plan must contain provision for all services necessary to provide for the comfort and physical well-being of fifty ambulatory aged persons of both sexes and must contain the following:

- 1—Bedrooms designed for double occupancy, with a limited number for single occupancy.
- 2—Bathing and toilet facilities for fifty elderly persons.
- 3—Room for residents to meet visiting friends and relatives with some degree of privacy.
- 4—Kitchen and dining facilities for fifty residents.
- 5—Communal and recreational area.

- 6—Provision for occupational therapy pursuits for both sexes, with detail as to layout.
- 7—Suite for supervising matron.
- 8—Administrative office.
- 9—Laundry facilities for the residents to wash personal belongings.

Sketch plans need not necessarily meet architectural standards, but should be drawn to scale of one-eighth inch to the foot, with any detail layout to scale of half inch to the foot. All signatures should be so placed as to be readily masked without concerning any of the plan detail.

The winning plans and features will be chosen on merit by a panel of judges whose decision will be final.

All award winning plans and features become the exclusive property of the Government of Alberta. The Government is not bound to use any winning sketch plan or feature in the preparation of the final architect's working plan, but may vary any plan or combine or vary any award winning feature or plan so that the best possible design will be achieved.

All sketch plans should be sent to the Minister of Public Welfare, Room 303, Administration Building, Edmonton, Alberta. To be eligible for any award a plan must be delivered or postmarked not later than Saturday, November 15, 1958.

C.N.I.B. Canvass Is Successful

Mrs. Nora Goulding, campaign convener for the recent drive for funds for the C.N.I.B., has announced this week that the sum of $75.34 was realized in the canvass conducted by the Coleman Ladies of the Order of the Royal Purple, No. 96.

The lodge have expressed a sincere vote of thanks to all citizens in Coleman who supported the drive in such a generous fashion.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Holstead:

Thank you for your kind message of sympathy and also for printing the news in The Journal so quickly. I have received many cards from Coleman.

Joe has been quite well as you know all these years but the end came suddenly.

We were waiting for the family to come home for supper when he said he felt queer and had a pain in his chest. He looked terrible and I was so shocked as we had just been quietly talking.

The doctor came immediately and eased the pain, and so as not to take any chances, ordered the ambulance, but half a block from hospital he took another attack and passed away in emergency soon after.

It's been a terrible blow but I am so thankful for the blessing of all the happiness we've known and the "extra" fifteen years we have had here. Our children are all grown. The two grandchildren were here and he was holding their hands. They couldn't understand why grandpa was so sick.

We were both so homesick to go back to Coleman and the flowers, letters and cards pouring in show us we have not been forgotten.

We had Frank Marconi for one of the pallbearers so we had a bit of Coleman. We had been out visiting them the night before and had a wonderful time.

Mrs. Marconi's father and mother had just returned from visiting Coleman and showed us pictures they had taken at Frank's home.

In spite of the notice in the paper about flowers, there were many. I never realized we had made so many friends. Hundreds called at the Chapel and as many more sent cards besides a large number at the funeral. Some of the men Joe has worked for in the peninsula were there too. They were here from Buffalo, Tonawanda, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls, Niagara-on-the-Lake, and Kingston and his cribbage league pals.

Joe looked wonderful with a smile on his face. We put him in a steel vault in a "borrowed" plot until we get the new cemetery behind our church ready. Virginia's father-in-law let us use one of his plots.

To you and all the kind friends in Coleman I say thanks for giving me such a wonderful warm comforting feeling. Our memories of Coleman will never die and God has richly blessed us even in our sorrow.

Sincerely,
Virginia Petrunick, and Family.

Parent-School Organization Met In Red Deer

The fourth annual meeting of the Parent-School Organization for Exceptional Children of the Provincial Training School in Red Deer was held on Sunday, October 19, 1958.

It was announced at this time that the winner of the Cabin Cruiser was Mr. Rene Thibert of Pincher Creek, Alberta.

The net proceeds were approximately $2,000.00. This boat was assembled by the boys at the school under the supervision of the shop instructor. The members at the meeting were given the opportunity of inspecting the 16 ft. Cabin Cruiser now under construction. It is a beautiful boat and will be ready for the draw in May.

The prime purpose of the Association, the only one of its kind in Canada, is to supply comforts for the Trainees of the School, and the proceeds of all their projects have been used for this purpose. In the four years of organization, they have placed TV sets in the Villa's and maintained them, assisted in the building of the Randall R. MacLean Cottages, at Gull Lake which gave 340 children a week's holiday this summer, and were responsible for the electrification of the two cottages.

The most recent venture was the setting up of a Mental Health Research Council. A Board of Trustees was chosen for this worthwhile work and money allocated to start a fund for their use.

Also under consideration is a wading pool in the School's picnic grounds.

The new executive is as follows:
Hon. president, Dr. L. J. Le Vann.

President, Mr. C. A. Chiswell of Calgary.

1st vice-president, Mrs. D'Amico of Calgary.

Ukrainian Society Mark 40th Anniversary

Over 60 persons gathered in the Ukrainian hall in East Coleman on Sunday afternoon to mark and celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Association of United Ukrainian Canadians and its predecessor Association, the Ukrainian Labor Farmer Temple Association.

For the occasion the numerous guests enjoyed a varied banquet of choice Ukrainian dishes.

Following the dinner a speech was delivered by Andrew Halluk. Pointing out that the organization's origin dated back to 1918, Mr. Halluk went on to tell of the humanitarian character demonstrated in assisting Russian people during the famine years of 1920 and 1921. He also stated the Red Cross had been assisted and work had been done during the last war. Bringing relief to the people of Red River during the flood in 1950 was another venture the group had participated in.

In Educational and Cultural fields the Association was conducting a school teaching children and adults their native language as well as geography of the country, its history and literature.

Music classes have also been conducted through the years and a mandolin orchestra originating from the classes had made appearances in concerts in the Ukrainian hall and at other functions.

Until recently a well trained choral group existed along with a Ukrainian dancing class which appeared in many local variety concerts throughout the Pass.

Through the initiative of the Association a joint Slavic Festival was held in the Blairmore arena in 1947 which was also held in Coleman the following day.

In 1951 the group organized a colorful concert which was held in the Coleman Romy Theatre to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the first Ukrainian settlers in Canada. Adding to the cultural achievements of the group numerous dramatic plays have been enjoyed by the audiences.

Mr. Halluk also pointed out that in general the people have adapted themselves well to the new land and have made great contributions to the country.

The menfolk have worked in the mines, forests and railroads as honest workers and have been and continue to be good union members.

The aims and objectives of the Association of United Ukrainian Canadians and its members is to work for the welfare of Canadian people and to make Canada a happy land to live in.

Following the address six charter members of the organization were called upon and presented with their 40-year membership scrolls.

Receiving the honors were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Halluk, Steve Ewanec, Joe Polski and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Malanchuk.

Several films on Ukrainian Culture were then shown, after which the Association enjoyed a buffet lunch.

"Terry" Mraz Wins Herald Scholarship

Word was received in Coleman recently that Miss Teresa ("Terry") Mraz, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Mraz of Coleman, has won a $450 scholarship sponsored by the Calgary Herald for students from Southern Alberta, who have entered either the General or Holy Cross Hospital schools of nursing.

Terry, as she is better known by her many Pass friends, entered her nurses training at the Holy Cross Hospital in September.

While here she was a member of the Coleman Drama Club, and was on the High School Council. She won several scholarships in Coleman, sponsored by various local organizations.

The award of $450 is given to the student in installments at the beginning of each training year. The nurse in training receives $200 at the time of enrollment and $100 at the beginning of the second year if her record is still of a high standard and the balance of $150 at the beginning of the final year. Entrance requirements are senior matriculation. Students must also be accepted by one of the two nursing schools in addition to meeting the scholastic standards established by a selection committee.

Prior to her leaving here Miss Mraz was awarded the $100 scholarship sponsored by the Crown Nest Pass Chapter of the Alberta Association of Registered Nurses for the girl in the Pass towns attaining the highest marks in grade 12 who plans on making nursing her career.

Home and School Conference

In November each year the Home and School Association plans regional conferences.

Members in the West Border Region, which extends from the U. S. border to The Pass and west to Cardston, will convene at the New Dayton school auditorium in New Dayton, Saturday, November 15th at 9 a.m.

The guest speaker for the conference will be Mr. Carl B. Johnson, High School Inspector.

Mr. R. H. Jeacock, president of the Alberta Federation, will address the morning meeting and conduct a "buzz" session.

The recording secretary of the Federation, Mrs. Anne Gray, will discuss nominations. Two Federation vice-presidents, Mrs. Dean Holroyd and Mrs. Lorne Frey will speak on program planning.

It is hoped that each association in the region will make an effort to have representatives present who will receive inspiration from the thought provoking discussions and the stimulation to enthusiasm such leaders can give.

At noon a luncheon will be served by the New Dayton Home and School, and the Stirling group will provide sandwiches for the afternoon "break".

Mr. Grant Carmine, regional director, is in charge of all arrangements for the conference.

Former Coleman Girl Wed In Creston

Holy Cross Catholic Church in Creston, B. C., was nicely decorated on Saturday, October 25, 1958, for the exchange of marriage vows between Fay Mary Ann Rejman and Louis David Mizera with the Rev. Father Morelli officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Rejman of Creston and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mizera of Round Hill, Alberta.

The bride and her parents were former residents of Coleman.

Entering the church at 11 a.m. on the arm of her father, the bride looked lovely in a nylon net and rayon lace over rayon satin dress, with delicately scalloped neckline and front bodice embroidered with cup sequins and simulated pearls, and lace tiers with deep nylon net flounce.

Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley.

Matron of honor, Stella Mizera of Round Hill, Alberta, wore a yellow sheer nylon gown with kimono sleeves, round front neckline with low v-neck neckline.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jacqueline Krish and Miss Constance Rejman, both of Coleman, Alberta. The former chose a gown of turquoise sheer nylon chiffon taffeta with nylon net and decorated with pearls and the latter donned a blue gown with floating panel and sheer nylon chiffon taffeta with a nylon half skirt.

Their flowers were Colonial bouquets of rose buds and 'mums with matching ribbons.

Best man was a brother of the bride, Mr. George S. Rejman and ushering were Mr. Eric Hohne and Mr. Robert Kohan.

Organist for the occasion was Mr. Adrian Kromhout.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Creston with rooms decorated with streamers and seasonal flowers.

Centering the bride's table was a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and flanked by bouquets of baby 'mums and pink large 'mums.

Servitors were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rejman, Mrs. Frank Krish of Coleman, Alberta; Mrs. Vince Carney of Calgary, Alberta, and Mr. and Mrs. Corry Landman and Mrs. Jake Fehr of Wynndel.

Toast to the bride was made by Mr. George S. Rejman with the room responding.

For a honeymoon trip to Spokane, Wash., and other U. S. points the bride donned a grey wool rayon tweed suit, with pleated skirt and jacket, featuring red accessories to match her suit.

On their return they will make their home in Creston.

Out of town guest were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mizera, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mizera, the Misses Stella Mizera and Mary Mizera, Mr. Eric Hohne, Mr. Robert Kohan, all of Round Hill, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Mizera, Ryley, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. Vince Carney of Calgary, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rejman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krish, Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Juhlin, the Misses Constance Rejman and Jacqueline Krish of Coleman, Alberta; Mr. Edward Rejman of Toby Creek, B. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner and Ronald Aiton of Edmonton, Alberta.

Recent Bride Shower Guest

On October 1st, about 50 ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Chas. Rejman, in West Coleman, for a small miscellaneous house shower in honor of Fay Rejman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rejman, formerly of Coleman, and now residing in Creston, B. C.

Fay wore a smart green chemise. Lovely corsages were presented to Fay and her mother when they first arrived.

The ladies engaged in bingo and whist until lunch time.

First prize in whist was won by Mrs. Mary Morris; second prize went to Mrs. Jean Kubica, while the consolation prize went to Mrs. Olive Ruschlicka.

Mrs. Mary Pownall won the door prize and lucky Mrs. J. Kapalka received a lovely chiffon cake for having her birthday closest to the day of the shower.

From the hostesses Fay received a stein from the donations a toaster from her mother, an electric pressure cooker, and from other friends and relatives many other useful gifts.

Parents spend the first part of a child's life getting him to walk and talk, and the rest of his childhood getting him to sit down and shut up.
